

Project Managers Headed to Charlotte for LEED Classes

General

Posted by: Heather

Posted on : 2008/8/23 14:10:00

As we all know, before long everything in the construction world will go green. To get ahead of the game TCC Enterprises's project managers are headed to Charlotte to take classes in LEED construction.

Artie, Glen and myself are headed out next week to continue our education. We will be sitting in on classes given by the Carolina's AGC for LEED construction. We are excited to get ahead of the game, to keep our clients pleased.